

New Zealand Diploma in Cybersecurity Level 6 (NZ3837)

Additional Requirements

Applicant's full name

Date of birth

You must complete this in addition to the Admission and Enrolment form. Your application will not be processed until you have submitted the Admission and Enrolment form and all additional requirements.

Convictions against the law

As you will be participating in a placement in a position of trust, we require you to complete a Police Vetting Request and Consent Form. This documentation is only valid for three months, so we require you to make a declaration below about whether you have ever been convicted of any offence against the law. It is our policy to alert applicants to this requirement as part of your enrolment to identify any issues that may impact on your ability to participate in your placement and complete this programme. If any information that you provide proves to be false or misleading, your application or enrolment may be declined or withdrawn by Ara. When accepted onto the programme you will be asked to complete and return a NZ Police Vetting Request and Consent form before your placement.

The information you provide will be entered by Ara onto the NZ Police Licensing and Vetting Service database and returned in confidence to the Head of Department or delegated authority.

Information on the Police Vetting Service is available from: police.govt.nz/service/vetting

Have you ever been convicted of any offence against the law (apart from minor traffic convictions)?

Yes No If YES, please give details.

Have you ever been refused enrolment by a tertiary provider in New Zealand or overseas?

Yes No If YES, please explain.

I hereby declare that the information I have given above is true and correct and I understand that making a false declaration is an offence under the Crimes Act 1961.

I agree to notify the Department if there is any change to my situation during the duration of the New Zealand Diploma in Cybersecurity programme.
